Christopher Panamarioff,
Petitioner,

v.

State of Alaska,
Respondent.

Supreme Court No. S-17844

Order
Petition for Hearing

Date of Order: 11/19/2020

Court of Appeals No. A-12503

Trial Court Case No. 3KO-12-00002CR

Before: Bolger, Chief Justice, Winfree, Maassen, Carney, and Borghesan, Justices

Christopher Panamarioff petitions for hearing from a court of appeals memorandum opinion affirming his conviction of first-degree sexual assault. One section of the memorandum opinion concludes that the superior court did not err in denying Panamarioff's motion for a new trial based on a juror's knowledge of one of the witnesses.¹ The petition argues that the court of appeals erred by failing to address his argument that he was entitled to a new trial under federal law on this issue.

The failure to address a briefed issue is not one of the listed grounds for granting a petition for hearing under Appellate Rule 304. But an appellate court may grant a petition for rehearing under Appellate Rule 506(3) if it has "overlooked or misconceived a material question in the case." So it appears that Panamarioff should have addressed his argument on this issue to the court of appeals in a petition for rehearing. Under AS 22.05.015(a), we may transfer a case to the court of appeals if the case is within the jurisdiction of that court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. We TRANSFER to the court of appeals Panamarioff's argument that the court failed to address whether he was entitled to a new trial under federal law.
2. We DENY the petition on all remaining issues.
